Youth or COOL driving classes requiring an accompanying person for safety, (adult for all youth classes,) requires that the accompanying person remain in the cart at all times until the exhibitor leaves the arena. A separate header will be required for all youth drivers with an accompanying adult. ~~The accompanying adult will not assist the driver verbally or physically.~~

It is optional for 7 & Under to have a Mentor accompany the youth in the cart. Accompanying Mentor is not to assist or interfere with the physical driving of the horse. The touching of the driver by hand will constitute assistance. The accompanying adult's ~~Mentor's~~ hands must remain on the seat, on the cart, or in their own lap. Any physical assistance will result in automatic disqualification of that entry. Verbally Mentoring is reserved for emergency situations in a subdued tone of voice as not to distract other youth. Verbally Mentoring is to be penalized but severity is up to the judges based on the situation.

The Show Rules Committee shall consist of eleven (11) Regular members, five (5) members who have been retained from the previous three years from which a chairman shall be selected by those remaining members. The six (6) newly elected members may or may not be previous members. The nominations for these remaining six (6) positions will be made and elected by the membership present at the Annual Meeting. Committee members must participate in the Show Rules Committee meeting held at the Annual Convention, mid-year Board Meeting, and the World Championship Show in order to be eligible for the committee the next year. Failure to participate in both the mid-year workshop meeting and the World Championship Show may result in dismissal. If a vacancy arises, the committee will fill the vacancy by appointment at the discretion of the committee.

After h.2, ADD Clarifications

<sup>2</sup> "Conditioning" includes, but is not limited to, exercising and neck or body wrapping.

<sup>3</sup> If you co-own your horse with a non-related individual, only one owner (household/family) can show the horse YOTE, and the other owner will not be allowed to show the horse that calendar year. Dental, medical and farrier care do NOT have to be done by the YOTE exhibitor.

Must be harnessed by YOTE handler/owner or non-professional family member Headers - Only non-professionals can head YOTE horses.

4 Must be measured at all shows by the YOTE handler/owner or non-professional family member.

1. Exhibitor exceptions: Another Youth may show YOTE horses in Championship classes only when the YOTE exhibitor has more than one horse qualified. Another Youth may assist in any class requiring multiple handlers.

2. Horse handling exemptions: A YOTE horse may be held or petted by anyone. The petting of a horse with your bare hand is not considered grooming the horse. Anyone may assist a YOTE horse in an emergency.

3. Transportation YOTE horses may be transported to and from shows by anyone, including trainers. This includes loading, unloading, feeding and watering during transport.

b. (con't). Ownership The owner or lessee of record must be so recorded on the registration certificate (not postmarked) by January 1st of each year in which the YOTE horse is to be shown. If a horse is acquired or recorded on the registration certificate in the AMHA office after January 1, the youth owner/lessee must wait until the following year to enter the YOTE classes.

c. Foals Current year foals, whose dams met the ownership or lease requirements on January 1 (lease must be dated on or before January 1), may be shown by a YOTE exhibitor who would be eligible to show the dam.

d. YOTE Declaration A horse will be declared a YOTE horse when it enters its first YOTE class of the calendar year. Prior to being declared, the YOTE horse must abide by the YOTE rules starting on January 1st. The YOTE horse must be shown under the YOTE guidelines for one calendar year starting on January 1st regardless of the class entered (including open division classes).

e. Opt-Out A declared YOTE horse may be removed from the YOTE program by submitting the YOTE Opt-Out Declaration form to the AMHA Office. The YOTE Opt-Out Form must be on file with the Office prior to the YOTE horse being trained, conditioned, groomed, or shown by a professional trainer. The Opt-Out Declaration will not be accepted during the course of any show. Fees - See Fee Schedule.

f. Sale of a YOTE Horse: Should a declared YOTE horse be sold during the calendar year it was designated for, a YOTE Opt-out Declaration Form must be submitted to the Office prior to, or with the Transfer of Ownership or Lease. Once a horse has been sold, it must wait until the following calendar year to enter YOTE classes.

g. YOTE showing in other divisions: The YOTE horse and handler may show in their appropriate Youth classes or open division class.

h. Rule Violations: Failure to abide by the YOTE rules: Once YOTE horse has begun showing within a given calendar year will result in the following penalties:

1. Violations at Local/Championship/World Shows: the declared YOTE horse will be disqualified from all classes at the show where the violation occurred. The YOTE horse will forfeit its YOTE status for the remainder of the calendar year it was declared for. The Youth will be subject to the AMHA Disciplinary Committee.
2. All alleged violations must be substantiated by official records, show management observation, or other recorded visual evidence.
